

Social and Personal

A WEDDING of much interest here took place in Petersburg on Thursday evening at the First Baptist Church, when Miss Florence Nellie Young, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irby Scott, was married to Clement Douglas Barksdale, son of Clement L. Barksdale, Rev. W. C. Taylor performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. D. H. Rolston. The church was decorated in palms, ferns and lighted candles. The bride's gown was of white satin, with pearl and chiffon trimmings, and her veil was held in place by gardenias, and caught in the train with gardenias. Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley, tied with an unbroken scarf. The matron of honor, Mrs. Harvey Strachan Gill, wore a white satin dress, with pearl and chiffon trimmings, and carried a bouquet of white sweetpeas. The bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth Barksdale and Josephine Jackson, wore lilies of the valley, with white and pink trimmings, and carried white bouquets. The groomsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeFord, were in white tuxedos, and the ushers were William G. Baird, Frank Hobbs, Sidney Gill, Lewis Clarke, Emmett Hoy and Raleigh Powell. After June 25 Mr. and Mrs. Barksdale will be at home in Petersburg.

Invitations have been received here to the finals at Virginia Military Institute. These exercises are always impressive, and the balls are part of Virginia's social history. This year there are to be many class reunions, which will increase the spirit and enthusiasm of the finals in Lexington. Many Richmond boys are at V. M. I., and several will be graduated this year.

Wedding Announcement. Mrs. Samuel D. Drewry has issued announcement cards of the wedding of her daughter, Miss Agnes Halston Drewry, and John Edward DeFord, of Baltimore. The ceremony took place in St. Paul's Church on Tuesday morning, June 6.

Note of Thanks to Miss Johnston. The Equal Suffrage League of Virginia held its weekly meeting Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Chas. V. Meredith presiding. Plans for next autumn's work were discussed, and a report from Miss Mary Johnston, delegate to the convention of the Virginia Federation of Labor, which gave its indorsement to the league, was heard with great interest and appreciation. Miss Johnston, after her report, said good-by to the league, as she was to leave with other members of her family last night for New York, and to sail next Tuesday for Holland and France, where she will remain until the autumn. Miss Johnston received a rising vote of thanks from league members for her work in their behalf during the past winter and spring.

Miss Meredith announced that Miss Lila Barbour would be the guest of the league.

Dr. J. M. Farrar of Brooklyn, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the chapel at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and the address before the Young Men's Christian Association Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

On Monday morning in the skating rink the Sigma Gamma will be danced Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock the annual regatta between the crews of the Delta Kappa and the Harry Lee Boat Club will be rowed. The Literary Societies will hold their joint celebration on Monday night in the chapel. W. H. R. Campbell, of the Graham Lee, will preside at the celebration, and John A. Bowman, of the Washington, will be chief marshal. The orators are: From the Washington, W. R. Taylor and D. B. Straley; from the Graham-Lee, C. O. Dunn and C. P. Heaver. After the celebration of the societies will come the senior ball, given by the members of the senior, academic, law and engineering classes. The Junior Ribbon Society, however, given by P. A. N. and White Friars will take place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. On the morning of Tuesday the board of trustees will convene in Newcomb Hall in their annual business meeting. At the same hour a band concert will be given on the campus. At 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the annual meeting of the Alumni Corporation will take place. The address before the alumni will be delivered on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock by Miss Poindeux, United States Senator from Washington, a member of the law class of 1891 at this university. At this meeting the Pinkney prize cup will be presented to the crew winning the boat race on Monday afternoon. The annual alumni smoker will be given in the meeting in the chapel, and will be notable because of the reunion of the men who studied law here under Professor Graves. At 6 P. M. Tuesday Dr. Denny will give a reception at his home on the campus to the visiting alumni, parents and friends of the students and the students.

The commencement exercises will take place Wednesday morning in the chapel. At 10:50 A. M. the procession of the board of trustees, faculty and graduates in academic costume will form in front of Newcomb Hall and march to the chapel, where Robert L. Owen, United States Senator from Oklahoma, will address the graduating class. Senator Owen graduated from Washington and Lee in 1877, with the degree of M. A. A. H. Hopkins will give the valedictory address on behalf of the seniors. The scholarships and prizes awarded will be delivered by Dr. Denny, as will the diplomas to the graduates.

The closing event of the finals will be the annual ball, which will be danced on Wednesday night. R. B. Thach, of the junior law class, president of the ball, will lead the opening figure. Finals will be enlivened by the presence of an unusually large number of visiting girls and many more alumni than usual will come back this year. Special invitations have been sent to all the alumni, who studied law under Professor C. A. Graves, and a large number of these men will be present at this reunion to meet Professor Graves again.

Carrier-Pack. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Blacksburg, Va., June 9.—Clara Allan, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan C. Pack, and Lyman Carrier, polytechnic institute, were married in the home of the bride's parents here this afternoon, only the family
